W. J. Thomson and Dr. O'Brien Outline Liberal Policy Before Large Meeting At Valhalla

At a well attended meeting at Valhalla on Friday night, Dr. L. J. O'Brien spoke in support of the Liberal candidate for the Peace River riding.

Speaking of the tendency of governments to control the people, Dr. O'Brien pointed out the development and the growth of new parties, such as Social Credit, and said they interfered with personal liberty and had developed gradually into dictatorship, like that of Hitler in Germany and Mussolini in Italy.

Following Dr. O'Brien, W. J. Thomson outlined the Liberal policy as follows:

"We believe that the most important question facing the people of Alberta today is that of monetary reform. Success can only come in this and other districts of Alberta and Canada when our monetary system is changed and made in the terms of public need.

This can only come about with the establishment of a public-owned central national bank to control and issue national currency, and to manage the monetary system in terms of public need. Under such a system taxation and interest can be reduced, provincial credit can be supplied at cost and interest on farm loans can be reduced. The basic industries of agriculture, lumbering, mining and fishing can then be developed by the application of this national credit and will be the first step in bringing back prosperity in Alberta.

With the development of agriculture and our other resources must come an aggressive trade policy. The products of our farms, mines, forests, must be sold or exchanged with countries who will trade with us on an equal basis. There must be a lowering of tariffs to encourage trade and to cheapen the cost of machinery of production. There must be a reduction of freight rates, especially on grain and live stock, until a coast

PREMIER OF ALBERTA IN ADDRESS REVIEWS GOVERNMENT'S RECORD

The following is an address given last week by Mr. Reid:

The government has brought the province through the greatest depression in the world's history, and in appealing to the people for a renewal of their confidence it challenges its critics to compare its record with any fair standard of comparison and to show where any government similarly situated has met its problems and carried its people through to better advantage.

For the days ahead the government's general objective is: To bring a sense of security into the lives of men and women, and bring back to youth the vision of life as a great and worth-while adventure.

PROVINCE CAN'T DO IT

There is no short cut to this objective. Canada as a whole could try out any or all of the varied remedies being advocated because it is, to a sufficient degree, self-contained and has sovereign powers. Alberta is not sufficiently self-contained to make a definite break with the rest of Canada, and is not sovereign in any sphere where change is essential. To make the break would deprive us of many of the social services we now enjoy.

The government is all for the objective, but the means to be adopted must commend themselves to the good sense of the people, and must be capable of being stated in terms that an ordinary reasonable person can understand. Surely that is the least we can expect of those who propose to revolutionize our whole economic and social structure.

PRESENT CONDITIONS

The situation today may be summed up as follows:

Human life is becoming less and less an effective means of providing for human needs.

Wages are becoming less and less an effective means of distributing the products of industry for human use.

The returns to the primary producer are entirely out of line with what he has to pay for everything he buys, and to the existing debt structure. Industry has no remedy for the problem.

The government of the province is very much alive to the need for bringing about the changes in our economic and financial system that must be made, and its main function is to carry out the existing essential services of government during the transition period.

ACHIEVEMENTS REVIEWED

The government submits its record to the people. These are as follows:

The establishment by legislative enactment of the fundamental principle that the man on the land is entitled to the fruits of his own labor, sufficient to assure him of food, shelter, clothing and medical attention for himself and family, and the cost of carrying on his operations.

The utilization in cooperation with our own debt adjustment machinery of the provisions of the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act for the reduction of the principal and interest of farm mortgages, and in reduction by the board of review of the payment of dividends by the state in the course of the year to those who are unable owing to conditions beyond their control to provide for themselves with the necessities of life, as follows:

$1,280,000 to 6,200 persons for old-age pensions;
$1,000,000 for the care of the sick;
$5,514,000 under the provisions of the Mother's Allowance Act;
$5,125,000 for unemployment and farm relief; making a grand total of $8,500,000 from all sources.

SECURITY AIDED

In addition, this very important feature must be noted: that leadership has been given in those fields of activity that are most closely connected with the lives of the people—such as health, institutional care, agriculture and education.

Every one of these actual steps has brought a measure of security into the lives of our people, and demonstrated that the government is not an idle dream.

Despite threatening weather, a hot and sultry day, the annual picnic of the "Blazers of the Trail" was held on Wednesday. About 2500 persons gathered on the grounds which were the scene of a most enjoyable afternoon and evening was experienced. Even the money-raising was a day off and was conspicuous by their absence.

Members of Beaver Lodge brass band donated their services and gave a most acceptable program of music, which helped to further given up the proceedings.

Football, horseback pitching, swimming and athletic events, which were topped off with the annual tug-of-war between the East and the West, furnished the sports program.

There was another side to the proceedings of the trail an opportunity to meet and chat over the days that are gone. During the afternoon the very old timers had a group picture taken by Cameron White of Grande Prairie.

MOSCOW, Aug. 1.—Brief official announcement today disclosed the death of 55 Soviet sea-men, some of them young cadets, in the sinking of the submarine B-3 in the Baltic fleet manoeuvres a week ago.

only keenly alive to the seriousness of the situation but is actually tackling the problems in an efficient, conservative manner up to the limit of its ability to do so.

The U. F. A. program involves the taking of the following steps on the way for the ultimate objective:

1. The appointment of a director of youth activities and the extension of the system of probation officers to follow-up for juvenile delinquents.

2. The extension of facilities for secondary education in rural districts and the introduction of a new course of studies in the public and high schools so that the educational system will be more applicable to the demands of the time.

3. The immediate reduction of the age at which child-age pensioners become payable from 19 to 16.

4. A determined effort to bring the problem of unemployment wages in connection with the relief and unemployment problem.

5. The re-creation by Canada of the absolute control of the money issue and regulate credit and currency.

INTEREST REDUCTION

6. The reduction of the public debt in cooperation with the federal government at rates of interest not exceeding three or three and one-half per cent.

7. The reduction of the rate of interest on private mortgages to a maximum rate not in excess of five per cent.

8. The recognition by the federal government that unemployment, child-age pensioners, education and highways are problems of national importance and significance, and that more generous aid must be made available from federal sources.

9. The development and extension of facilities for marketing of all farm products, and the elimination of the unfair profits revealed in the report of the price advance commission.

10. The policy of consultation in the way of breaking and advice and direction as to farming methods and the re-location of settlers where necessary.

11. The application of the purpose of the Prevention Act to companies holding charters from the Dominion government.

12. The evolving by a properly justified committee of the changes necessary in our court procedure to simplify and speed-up the procedure and reduce the costs of court proceedings as far as possible.

13. The complete reorganization of the whole basis of the tariff system on the premise that Canada's tariff policy should be based on the selling of our agricultural products on the market of the world rather than on building up an artificial eastern industrial structure.

14. Compensation by way of increased subsidies for the loss occasioned by the unequal payment of tariff policies as between the provinces of Canada.

15. Continuing to carry on its investigations and collecting evidence of all activities in their present enquiry into the whole of the activities connected with the production, the refining and the distribution of gasoline, distillates and lubricating oils, to end that those commodities, which are so vital to our agricultural industry, shall be obtained as public utilities.

For the purpose of obtaining reliable and accurate data, that effective measures be applied to these industries, the government proposes to establish a refinery in one of the oil fields of the province.

16. Completion of the highway system and the building up of our secondary roads, with the ultimate objective of a continuous all-weather surfaced roads reaching into every community.

The U. F. A. government invites the people of Alberta to examine its record as public utilities, to examine its record in the field of the facts, the conditions prevailing under its administration, and the progress of its activities upon the province by which its policies may be carried out. With this information before them, the people will be able to judge for themselves their confidence in the government as the future-making agency.

PREMIER REID SETS FORTH U.F.A. PROGRAM IN MANIFESTO

EDMONTON, July 25.—Work for wages relief projects, field refunding with federal co-operation at rates not over 35 per cent remedy of abuses revealed in the Stevens probe, study of revision of the whole tariff structure aimed primarily at pushing western agriculture, and subsidies to finance the West for inter-provincial inequities caused by Dominion tariff policies were on record today as being among the U. F. A. government's plans. Premier Reid set forth his party's program in a manifesto broadcast Wednesday night, designed for the provincial election to be held August 22. Vigorously supporting the record of the U. F. A. government during years of the "greatest depression in the world's history" and appealing to Alberta voters to "examine this record in the full light of facts," Premier Reid stressed the steps already taken toward the general objective, which he announced as "to bring a sense of security into the lives of all men and women and bring back to youth the vision of life as a great and worthwhile adventure."

LONDON, July 25.—Britain, ready to back League of Nations authority, will close the Suez Canal to the belligerents in the event of an Italo-Ethiopian war, if the League Council recommends this step. It was declared by a reliable source. The report could not be confirmed from official sources. Information that Premier Mussolini intends to send 50,000 troops into East Africa for war with Ethiopia was said today by an authoritative British source to be in the hands of several foreign governments. The British government meanwhile put the clamp on exports of arms and ammunition from Britain to both Italy and Ethiopia.

LONDON, July 25.—Coincident with the concentration of Italian troops in East Africa, Great Britain is making what naval experts rate as the strongest, fastest naval fleet ever assembled in the Mediterranean.

Official announcements disclosed today the capital ship strength in the Mediterranean is being increased at least 100,000 tons and the fastest big and small ships are soon to be centred at Malta, the base which commands the Italian route to the Red Sea.

Flow From Slave Lake Cannot Be Increased Now

EDMONTON, July 22.—Nothing can be done at the present time to increase the flow of water from Lesser Slave Lake, where serious flood conditions have caused extensive damage, according to reports Premier Reid has received from L. C. Charlesworth, head of the provincial Water Resources Department. The report is based upon one made by P. H. Burfield, engineer for the Water Resources Branch, who has been in the flooded area for some time conducting investigations and ascertaining what might be done to alleviate the situation. At present the flow in the Slave River is raising the lake level at the rate of one foot in twenty days and it is expected that this will be maintained. Mr. Burfield has reported there is no sign that a bar at the mouth of the river is causing obstruction to the flow at the present time. Mr. Burfield will continue his work in the flooded area.

EDMONTON, July 24.—Prompt action is required to save life and property from the engulfing waters of the Slave Lake area, declared L. A. Giroux, Liberal member of the legislature for Groulx, on his return from the North Wednesday.

Mr. Giroux emphatically scored the investigations and discussions between the Dominion and provincial governments over jurisdiction as being beside the point and of no benefit in working out a solution.

"Why I find that the water of the Slave River and the Lake is not receding at all," he exclaimed.

Furthermore, people will not stand for governments having sibia by investigation and otherwise. Groulx and High Prairie are in a serious predicament. The sand bank at the mouth of the lake should be dredged and the crooked bend at the mouth of the river should be straightened out. This is a very small undertaking, as the estimate of the engineers in 1920 showed these bends could be cut out for $10,000. Moreover, obstacles in the rapids should be blown out by dynamite in order to increase the velocity and flow of the water.

LONDON, July 22.—Sir Bolton Forbes-Monell, first lord of the admiralty, told the Commons today that Britain was definitely abandoning the principle of naval ratios adopted in 1922 at Washington. Sir Bolton declared some nations felt it wounded their national pride to accept permanent inferiority.

They come in lovely flowered patterns and also in plain colors, the prints predominating, however.

The trick which the designers have employed to eliminate the "fussiness" of these frocks is an ingenious one. The secret is in pleating. Nearly all of the new chiffon frocks have pleats from top to bottom, with pleats in turned down from the stitching at the knees.

Besides the walking freedom which this treatment gives, pleating is an important fashion note this season and lends character and body to chiffon especially.

Typical of the vogue in chiffons is the frock sketched this week. Its print is especially lovely, with red flowers on a creamy white background and the entire dress is pleated, being styled above the waist and to the knee.

The smart square collar is of dark red linen, matching the belt, which provides striking contrast both in

G.P. Boy Makes Heroic Rescue At Bear Lake

The other day a man rushed up to Maxie Stice, a boy 13 years of age, as he was fishing with his father on a young friend on the beach at Benson's Point, Bear Lake, and shouted: "What a woman drowning out there!"

Maxie lost no time and rushed to the rescue of the woman, who was struggling with a tube which she was using as a sort of lifebuoy.

When he arrived where she was the woman had her feet caught in the tube and undoubtedly would have drowned but for the boy's timely assistance.

Maxie, who is an excellent swimmer, grabbed hold of the woman. He was pulled down by her weight but stuck to his task and finally succeeded in getting her to shore.

It is felt that he should receive some recognition for the heroic rescue.

He implied that it would be the U. P. A.'s future policy to continue to reduce debt rather than instituting a work program, which is considered too costly.

McMURRAY ALSO TIED UP

McMURRAY, Aug. 1.—McMurray district reached by the Northern Alberta Railway, has been out off by a severe storm that started here Sunday and lasted 48 hours, washing away rails and bridges before subsiding somewhat Tuesday. It was still raining Thursday and the tie-up is expected to last several days, and work in some cases, before repairs can be effected.

STURGEON HEIGHTS

MR. ALLEN SPEAKS

STURGEON HEIGHTS, July 31.—About 30 people were present last Monday evening at the schoolhouse to hear Mr. Hugh Allen.

Mr. Allen gave the record of his government's fourteen years of administration and showed that economies in executive expense were and are being made, and that the provincial debt, a matter made much of by the opposition parties, was comparatively lower than in any of the other provinces. He implied that it would be the U. P. A.'s future policy to continue to reduce debt rather than instituting a work program, which is considered too costly.

Can such continue? is a question asked.

He indicated and commended his government but felt to commit it to any policy of reform or financial reconstruction—about which we are all interested to hear at this time.

MUCH INTEREST IN S. C.

Mr. H. H. H. Credit speaker, disappointed a large gathering last Saturday when he failed to be on hand to speak. Heavy rain made it impossible for him to get out.

Much interest has been taken in Social Credit and people here wish to get definite information on this new economic theory even before a study group is started. It is hoped that we can have a lecturer in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bromley, Miss Helen Jean, Jimmy and Albert Bromley have had a family reunion in a few days' vacation at the hotel at the lake. They all left Friday for their home in Gage, with the exception of Jean and Jimmy who will remain in the city.

Ellen Bunkley spent a week visiting at Lewises. Among her diversions in camping, swimming and berry-picking. She left Saturday for town.

Albert and Jean Bromley returned Tuesday from town in their new Nash car, after a few days spent with friends in town.

Nash car, after a few days spent with friends in town.

Dick and Cecil Lewis motored out from town Sunday night with Fred Robertson and Albert Kadye. They went back Thursday with their dad to fill band and orchestra engagements.

Mr. A. E. Bromley was in the district last Tuesday on business in connection with arranging for giving homesteaders government aid in plowing their land. It is understood that several in the district have availed themselves of this privilege.

Albert Bromley has put a good barbed wire fence around his homestead.

George Tate and Mel Tallon have both been drilling wells and have struck a good water supply.

Jim Hartigan motored east as far as Peace River with Louis Stuck, peddling fish in McLennan, High Prairie and Falher.

The two weeks of enjoyable hot, clear weather greatly helped up and enabled the homesteaders to brush the house-wives to pick berries, with swimming a sport. It is cloudy and drizzly again, with indications for another rainy spell.

Referring to the problems of the returned men, Mr. Bergin stated that he stood for a reorganization of the system of handling the Soldiers Settlement Board and a thorough cleaning up of the department, and also for a thorough investigation into the handling of the soldiers' pensions and disability issues, and the giving to the returned men a new deal.

A change in the handling of soldier settlers' abandoned farms was another thing he would fight for if elected.

Mr. Bergin said he would stress as one of the main points of his policy, a heavy duty highway that would take the place of the so-called coast outlet until such time as conditions are changed. Dominion indebtedness discharged, and our financial position as improved that the money vote would be returned without taxing the people to provide the capital outlay for such purposes. He believed in the immediate adjustment that would guarantee a fair day's pay for a fair day's work.

Reduction of the age limit for old-age annuities to 65 years, and in case of disability to 60 years, was another principle for which he would contend. In closing, Mr. Bergin said "I stand for a closer relationship with the mother country, whereby a more distinct and mutual understanding will be engendered, to the end that commercial, industrial and financial relationships will be reestablished, resulting in mutual reciprocity."

There was a short discussion on Mr. Bergin's pronouncement of policy. At the close of the convention J. S. McKenzie, Conservative candidate in the provincial election, addressed the meeting.
